

Environmental Scientist: Graduate Role

Job Summary

We are seeking a suitably qualified environmental scientist.

The successful candidate will work on projects relating to water, waste and wastewater in the areas of environmental management, licence application, review and compliance.

Roles / Responsibilities:

Responsibilities will include:

- Project work for a broad spectrum of clients on issues relating to environmental legislation & regulation, resource efficiency, circular economy and general environmental management.
- Preparation of environmental licence and permit applications relating to waste and wastewater.
- Compliance Management and Reporting relating to IPPC/IED, waste management and wastewater discharge
- Desk based research and feasibility studies relating to waste recovery, management and reuse.
- Data Management and both non-technical and technical support as may be required
- Representing ECOS and interacting with our clients, associates, environmental regulators and contacts both in terms of technical project work and business development.

Education / Professional Qualifications:

- Graduate Environmental Scientist/Engineer.
- Additional specific studies and/or professional qualification relating to environmental management, licensing and compliance.
- Knowledge of legislation, licensing requirements and processes and regulatory issues affecting environmental performance.

Additional requirements:

- Candidates should be able to demonstrate their ability to work well in a team and on their own initiative, as well as take direction.
- The successful candidate will have excellent oral/ written communication skills and computer literacy.
- Good attention to detail is a requirement
- The successful candidate will have an open and enquiring mind and be able to demonstrate their willingness to develop their knowledge and skills on an ongoing basis.
- We are seeking candidates who are reliable and can demonstrate a strong work ethic.
- Applicants should demonstrate commercial awareness.
- Applicants must be able to demonstrate their knowledge of waste and wastewater licensing processes, environmental management best practice and the EU legislation which governs them.
- The successful candidate will thrive in a busy work environment and be able to demonstrate how they will structure projects and deliver goals within tight deadlines.
- Applicants should have their own transport and a Full Clean Driving Licence.
- Fluent spoken English is a requirement.

Location:

Based out of our Limerick office with project work at various other locations subject to client requirements.

Salary:

Salary is negotiable and will depend on the demonstrated skill levels and experience of candidates

Type:

Permanent Role subject to 6 month probationary period

Applicants should provide a cover letter and CV which demonstrates their suitability for the role to hr@ecos.ie before 7 December 2018 quoting reference G1240.